

OFGEM INDUSTRY UPDATE;

- ACER and ENTSO-E are running a joint consultation regarding the role of stakeholders in the implementation of European Network Codes and related guidelines, and in particular on the establishment of ENC Stakeholder Committees. The consultation runs until 23 January 2015 and more details on how to respond are here:

- Separately, Ofgem has set out some views on the implementation of ENCs in GB and the process for ensuring compliance with ENCs in a letter dated 18 December 2014. The letter also highlights the implementation issues arising out of the CACM guideline including the process Ofgem expects to follow for designation of Nominated Electricity Market Operators (NEMOs) in respect of the CACM guideline. The letter, which includes an invitation to provide views on the NEMO designation process by 30 January 2015, is available here:
