

DCP308 – Requiring a Party to provide three months' notice in the event they wish to change their Revenue Protection Agent

32. REVENUE PROTECTION

Amend Clause 32.3 as follows:

- 32.3 Where the Company provides a Revenue Protection Service to the User under this Agreement, it shall do so in accordance with the obligations of the 'Supplier' under the Revenue Protection Code of Practice. Charges for the services so provided shall be calculated in accordance with those specified as applicable to such services in the Relevant Charging Statement and shall be paid for as Transactional Charges in accordance with Clause 22. The Company may cease providing the Revenue Protection Service to the User under this Agreement, provided that the Company gives the User at least three months' advance notice of the date on which the Company will cease providing the Revenue Protection Service. The User may terminate a Revenue Protection Service that is provided by the Company under this Agreement, provided that the User gives the Company at least three months' advance notice of the date on which the User is to cease taking the Revenue Protection Service from the Company.
