

DCUSA Change Proposal 53 – Incident Management

New Clauses 30.13, 30.14, 30.15 and 30.16

Incident Management

30.13 Subject to Clauses 30.15 and 30.16, where the Company becomes aware of a single incident affecting Electric Lines with a nominal voltage of more than 1,000 volts that interrupts the supply of electricity to more than 5,000 Customers connected to the Company's Distribution System, the Company shall use reasonable endeavours to notify the User (within a reasonable period of time after the occurrence of the incident) by email of the following information:

30.13.1 the approximate number of such Customers whose supply has been interrupted as a result of such incident;

30.13.2 the postcodes or areas affected by such incident;

30.13.3 the nature of such incident if known; and

30.13.4 the time by which it is anticipated that the supply of electricity interrupted by such incident will be restored.

30.14 Subject to Clause 30.16, where the Company has notified the User of an incident pursuant to Clause 30.13, the Company shall use reasonable endeavours to notify the User by email:

30.14.1 (within a reasonable period of time after the supply of electricity interrupted by such incident has been restored) that such supply has been restored; and

30.14.2 (once approximately three hours has elapsed since the Company notified the User, and provided the supply of electricity has not been restored in the interim) of the time by which it is anticipated that the supply of electricity interrupted by such incident will be restored.

30.15 The Company shall not be obliged to comply with Clause 30.14 where the gravity of the incident, either alone or in combination with other incidents affecting the Company's Distribution System, makes it impractical for the Company to do so.

Where this Clause 30.15 applies, the Company shall (subject to Clause 30.16) use reasonable endeavours to notify the User (within a reasonable period of time after the occurrence of such incident or incidents) by email of:

30.15.1 the fact that such incident or incidents have occurred; and

30.15.2 the location of such incident or incidents, and the Company shall use reasonable endeavours to notify the User by email (within a reasonable period of time after the supply of electricity interrupted by such incident or incidents has been restored) that such supply has been restored.

30.16 The Company shall only be obliged to comply with Clauses 30.13, 30.14 and 30.15 where the User is a Supplier Party, and where the User has provided the Company with an email address for the purpose of receiving notifications pursuant to Clauses 30.13, 30.14 and 13.15.
