

Appendix B

B. Application to you and the premises: The National Terms of Connection may apply to you and a particular premises in two ways:

- ~~when you enter~~ if you have entered into a contract with your electricity supplier for the supply of electricity to, or the export of electricity from, a particular premises, you will also have agreed with the network operator to accept these terms in respect of those premises. This is because your electricity supplier has been appointed as the agent of the network operator to make such an agreement, or
- if you are either the owner or the occupier (or both the owner and the occupier) of a particular premises, you are required to accept these terms pursuant to section 21 of the Electricity Act 1989.

C. Application to other premises: If the National Terms of Connection apply to you and a particular premises in accordance with the first bullet of paragraph B above, you also agree that the National Terms of Connection apply to any other connection of any other premises of which you are the owner or the occupier (or both the owner and the occupier).

D. Obligation to give notice: If you are the owner but not the occupier of the premises, you agree to bring these terms and conditions to the attention of all the occupiers; if you are the occupier but not the owner you agree to bring these terms and conditions to the attention of all the owners; if you are neither the owner nor the occupier you agree to bring these terms and conditions to the attention of all of the owners and occupiers.

Renumber subsequent clauses accordingly
